Judging

Categories are open to both B2C and B2B entrants. Judges will consider the merits of each entry taking into consideration that metrics and success factors differ between B2C and B2B marketing programs. Judges will consider the linkage between strategy, execution and outcomes achieved.

Each nomination will be judged against the following criteria (IN ALL CATEGORIES):

- The extent to which the person, team or project has reflected the intent expressed in the category descriptor
- That entries show a clear alignment between the situational analysis, strategy, actions undertaken and outcomes achieved (against set goals and objectives). Judges will allocate scores across these dimensions.
- Evidence of commercial benefits to business and / or social impact: for example, the return on marketing expenditure and / or degree of social change
- Actionability of results, including clarity of recommendations, relevance and feasibility of marketing initiatives

Campaign Categories

Acquisition Marketing

This category recognises excellence in marketing programs and campaigns directed at acquiring new customers or members (both individual and/or corporate).

The judges will be looking for submissions that clearly demonstrate the effective use of marketing techniques with originality and creativity of approach in acquiring target consumers.

Submissions should address:

- The key drivers for the acquisition program
 - The linkage between the use of insight (research and analytics) to support the targeting of prospective customers or members
 - The strategy devised/deployed and the innovative use of marketing techniques to support the execution of the acquisition program
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Brand Revitalisation

This category recognises marketing excellence in revitalising an existing brand.

The judges will be looking for submissions that best demonstrate improved brand positioning and equity resulting from the process of brand revitalisation. Specifically, the role that marketing played in the overall revitalisation of the brand compared to the rest of the organisation or overall strategy.

Submissions should address:

- A sound linkage between the brand revitalisation drivers and challenges (the rationale for the need to revitalise the brand)
 - Strategy development (demonstrating the use of market and customer research and analytics to inform the strategy)
 - Execution of the brand revitalisation program elements, including innovative creative methods and approaches
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Content Marketing

This category recognises strategic approaches to creating, publishing and distributing content for targeted audiences in online or traditional methods.

The judges will be looking for submissions whose purpose is to educate and stimulate interest in the organisation's products or services or to build relationships to connect with audiences and create a sense of community.

Submissions should address:

- How relevance of content was determined
 - Originality in content and distribution to ensure cut through
 - An ability to attract, acquire, retain and engage a clearly defined target audience
 - Results against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Creativity in Brand, Product or Service Marketing

This category recognises outstanding creativity in the marketing of brands, products or services (new or extensions).

The judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate superior creativity in addressing a defined situation or challenge to deliver market cut-through.

Submissions should address:

- A solid understanding of the situation or challenge they addressed
 - How the situation or challenge influenced the creative approach adopted
 - Outline of the marketing strategy and reasons on the chosen strategy
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Customer Experience Marketing

This category recognises the role marketing plays in supporting and delivering exceptional customer experiences.

The judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate a superior understanding of the elements that contribute to delivering outstanding customer experiences and how marketing contributed to the overall organisational approach to managing customer experiences.

Submissions should address:

- The key driver for the CX marketing program and the linkage to the overall organisational approach
 - The strategy development process (use of customer insights to inform the strategy and how the strategy addressed the CX challenges being faced)
 - Execution of the CX marketing program elements, including innovative creative methods and approaches
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Event or Experiential Marketing

This category recognises excellence in the use of events as part of the organisations overall experiential marketing strategy.

Judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate a sound understanding of the role of event marketing in the context of experiential marketing and the fit within the overall marketing mix.

Events may be stand alone, conferences/exhibitions, standalone activations or activation/exhibitions within a larger event or series of events.

Submissions should address:

- How the event engaged with the target audience with the goal of deriving a particular or stated outcome
 - What innovative activity was deployed to achieve targeted outcomes
 - The role of event marketing within the overall marketing strategy
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Insight Driven Marketing

This category recognises the effective use of market, consumer and customer insight to identify and inform the development of marketing strategy.

Judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate how research and data analytics have been used in the formation of marketing strategy and the execution of a marketing campaign.

Submissions should address:

- How the data highlighted the issue or opportunity
 - How insights from the analysis have been used to develop a marketing strategy
 - How the insight impacted the effectiveness of the marketing campaign
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Integrated Marketing Communications Program

This category recognises excellence in the implementation of an integrated marketing communications program in either B2C or B2B.

Judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate the ability to use different marketing communication elements in an integrated manner to achieve the pre-determined program outcomes.

Submissions should address:

- Effective use of marketing communication methods and channels to achieve stated outcomes
 - How insight was used to support the development and implementation of the communications strategy or program.
 - How the communications strategy integrates with the overall marketing strategy or program strategy
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Loyalty and Retention

This category recognises the best use of integrated marketing strategies and programs to drive customer or member retention and build loyalty and advocacy.

Judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate originality in approach to techniques and practices to retain existing customers, corporate clients and/or members and grow existing customer value.

Submissions should address:

- The rationale for retention/loyalty strategy or program
- Linkage between the use of research and data analytics to inform the strategy development
- Innovative use of marketing techniques to support strategy deployment
- Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's, including:
 - Program expenditure costs
 - Retention rates
 - Revenue per person retained

Market and Consumer Research

This category recognises the effective use of market and consumer research and/or customer analytics to uncover or qualify a challenge or opportunity for marketing or the wider organisation.

Judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate a depth of understanding in the research and insight techniques and how the findings have been used to inform an organisational or marketing specific challenge or opportunity.

Submissions should address:

- Effective use of research, database analytics or information analysis
 - How the interpretation was used to inform organisational and/or marketing strategy and business decision making
 - Results/effectiveness against pre-determined metrics and KPI's

Not for Profit Marketing

This category recognises excellence in marketing campaigns for not-for-profit organisations.

Judges will be looking for submissions that demonstrate how NFP or cause related marketing has delivered outstanding results for the organisation or specific cause.
